

The Mile High United Way Performance Collaborative is focused on strengthening nonprofit programs, increasing evidence of what works, and making programs more effective to create greater impact for children and families in our community. Throughout a two year intensive program, Mile High United Way provides nonprofit organizations with customized coaching and peer learning opportunities to build a culture of learning and improvement.

1 ASSESS READINESS

IS THE PROGRAM READY FOR THE PERFORMANCE COLLABORATIVE?

The organization has the willingness to collect and use data to drive decision-making
The organization has an overall commitment to continuous quality improvement
The organization is ready to embrace learning and manage change

2 STRENGTHEN THE PROGRAM MODEL

WHAT IS THE PROGRAM TRYING TO ACHIEVE?

Define the right set of services to create impact
Identify the appropriate program participants
Establish credible program outcomes

3 MEASURE PROGRAM EFFECTIVENESS

WHAT INFORMATION CAN IMPROVE THE PROGRAM?

Determine the most impactful program metrics
Build out meaningful and quality data collection tools
Strengthen organizational capacity to collect data

4 USE DATA FOR IMPROVEMENT

HOW CAN DATA BE USED TO STRENGTHEN THE IMPACT OF THE PROGRAM?

Integrate data review into the skills and routine of staff
Refine data systems to promote fast and frequent use of data
Systematically review findings to strengthen the program

RESULTS

With strategic clarity and a strong data driven culture, organizations completing The Performance Collaborative will have a sustained impact on the children and families they serve.
